After the fall of Kalgan (114-55, 40-50) to Chinese Communist forces in December 1948, the task of organizing the many Mongols in that area fell to JUNG Chi-chen ( ), a 42-year-old Whampoa Military Academy graduate (1933) and former Brigadier General in Prince TE's Japanese-controlled Mongol army. He is considered to be able and shrewd, and his orientation is basically towards Mongol autonomy, rather than Communism. When the Wangyehmiao regime was set up, he gravitated towards it as a focus of Mongol culture and racial strength. FU Tso-1's troops captured lim, and he was imprisoned in Kalgan, being released when Chinese Communism. him, and he was imprisoned in Kalgan, being released when Chinese Communist troops took the city. He is from Sulyuan Province and is thus relatively near his own grounds; his strength is still limited but growing. He has very close personal ties with YUN Tae, President of the Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government at Wangyehmiae, although his longterm symmathies match better those of Hawongga, Vice-President of the Wangyehmiao government.
